Cal State Bakersfield 73, California 66

The Roadrunners took advantage of a shorthanded California team to win the school's first tournament game since becoming a postseason-eligible Division I program in 2011. Playing without leading scorers Ivan Rabb and Jabari Bird, the Bears' second-half comeback attempt was not enough as they became the sixth higher seed to lose in the NIT on Tuesday night.

Player of the game

Roadrunners guard Dedrick Basile led the team with 18 points on 7-of-15 shooting and hit 4-of-8 from 3-point range. He added five rebounds and four assists in addition to two steals.

Key stats

California hit only eight of its first 40 shots before finishing the game 10-of-14.

The Roadrunners shot 16-of-32 in the first half but just 7-of-23 in the second.

Cal State Bakersfield guard Damiyne Durham also hit four 3-point shots and finished with 13 points.

Bears guard Don Coleman led all scorers with a career-high 26 points.

The teams combined for 56 fouls but shot a combined 41-of-68 from the free-throw line.

Cal State Bakersfield had a 36-16 advantage in bench scoring.

The Roadrunners did not hit a field goal in the final 4:23.

Key play

Durham put the finishing touch on the Roadrunners' dominant first half by hitting his fourth and the team's eighth 3-point shot with 11 seconds left to give Cal State Bakersfield a 44-19 lead at the half.
